MEET US!

Syracuse Architecture offers one of the highest ranked five-year Bachelor of Architecture programs in the U.S. It is a professional program embedded in a prestigious liberal arts university that includes study opportunities in Florence, London, and New York City.

I hope you are among the outstanding pool of students who apply to our program. Syracuse University offers a comprehensive and competitive financial aid and scholarship program.

The portfolio submission is a mandatory component of our admissions process and we invite you to attend one of our fall events to present your portfolio. You may also submit your portfolio by mail or online. Please refer to our website at soa.syr.edu for more information.

I wish you the best in this exciting time in your life and look forward to your application and the possibility you will pursue architecture studies here in Syracuse.
